

THE ALONE KID AND HIS DOG

👁 6 ✓ 2 ★ 3

Chapter 1 by PEREZ

In a little village and two dads in the streets of London and one little kid. They were very poor they didn't have a home or a house. One day the dads could not afford the pain that they have in their hearts and they decided to give the baby to another person. They wanted that his children have a good life so they left him with the rich man on that village. Sir Cohoala was gonna have that baby. So when the day started in the morning they left her son with a dog outside of the door so they knock the door when Sir Cohoala opened the door he found the little kid and the dog. When the years passed the kid was strong and intelligent and his dog was named Nicolas. Nicolas was a great and brave dog he was a good dog and ordinary and loyal. One day Sir Cohoala said to Justin that what does he want in his 11 birthday. He said he wanted to go to the forest.

Chapter 2 by Luke Meyers

Sir Cohoala's grin fell into a grim scowl, and he cuffed the boy savagely across the side of the face. "Idiot boy! You know the entire forest has been cut down to appease Her Majesty's insatiable desire for nightly bonfires! Go to the forest indeed... more like go to bed without supper! Begone with yeh!" He shoved Justin's rump with his foot, sending him stumbling down the hall to his tiny and miserable chamber.

He was greeted there by the always eager and faithful Nicolas, who knew nothing of deforestation or bonfires but knew everything about loving Justin. After an energetic round of pouncing and licking, they calmed down and sat together on Justin's dirty mat of straw.

"Oh, Nicolas, what are we to do? This is not the life that my fathers wanted for me. And surely there must still be a forest somewhere, some place we can run free amid the trees and all the beautiful green. We must escape. See more of Story Wars own adventures!
